

"A BLOSSOM ON A MULE."

Strange Sermon Subject Draws
Crowd to Hear Illinois
Evangelist.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
MOUNT VERNON (Ill.) Jan.
24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Contention has been created in church circles Sunday when the announcement came out in the local papers that an evangelist
in charge of revival services at the Free Methodist Church
would take for his subject, "A Blossom on a Mule." Preachers and laymen talked about the odds of the subject, but the real solution was not made until the evangelist saw the printed announcement. His real subject was, "Abraham on a Mule." The printers made it read "A blossom on a mule,"
a big crowd came out to hear the evangelist.

ject of a special election to be called fore the end of the regular session.

WHILE PUBLIC IS AFRAID.
The theory of this course is that it is best to submit them promptly while the public mind is aflame by the situation and while the administration is in a position to demand political support. A delay until the general election two years hence might find the "progressive" party subsiding and the people restored to more conservative methods of governing themselves. It might also find the Republican party freed from the semi-socialistic, semi-Democratic revolutionists now in the saddle.

The scheme is said to find its origin
in the apparent need of a special session in the spring or summer to provide revenue for the maintenance of the State government. Both the Finance Committee of the Senate and the Ways and Means Committee of the Assembly have no assurance that the revenue from the corporation gross

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
PEKING, Jan. 24.—The weekly express to Hankow today was crowded with refugees. These included college professors, military officers, the Italian Minister, minor diplomats and persons of means, who find the moment convenient for vacation
or retirement.

The bubonic plague, which had its first victim here several days ago, and it is believed, many since, is the primary cause of the exodus.

No new cases of bubonic plague were reported here today, but the opinion is held at the legations that the Chinese are not reporting illness and are possibly secreting the bodies of the deceased.

The newspapers are supporting the government in its efforts to allay the fears. The masses, nevertheless, are much alarmed by growing reports, such as one alleging that the Russian legation at Harbin are casting the affected into poisoned wells. The story perhaps developed from the possible
use of lime pits for the dead.

Meanwhile the diplomatic body has been unable to agree how the legation quarters should be quarantined.
The Germans, Austrians, and British are behind barred gates of their own compounds and are advocating drastic measures. The Japanese, who have the most pressing general interests to be looked after, are supporting the Chinese foreign office.

William J. Calhoun, the American Minister, has suggested keeping within the quarantine all the hands and the exclusion of the Chinese except such officials as have business with the le-gations. The moderates declare the others are panic-stricken, while political motives are attributed to the Japanese.

So far, only a general measure of quarantine has been undertaken. The disease has reached Pao-Ting-Fu, in the province of Chi-Li, on its southward progress. Pao-Ting-Fu is seventy miles southwest of Peking.

The Viceroy of Hankow has telegraphed to the government asking permission to establish a quarantine against Peking.

NINETY-NINE PER CENT.
OF THE STRICKEN DIE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 24.—A special dispatch from Harbin declares that hunters from Jerboa, in Mongolia, carried the plague into Manchuria. The first cases occurred near Khalhar, but the disease was not localized, and crept to the southeast.

Almost every case has ended in death. The diseases are of the pulmonary type and the mortality is estimated at 99 per cent. According to the dispatches the Chinese masses suspect that it was designedly introduced into their country.

Sixteen physicians, twenty-five assistant surgeons and 200 nurses have been assembled by the Russian authorities
and will be sent to the infected districts.

PESTILENCE SPREADING
THROUGH MANCHURIA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
TOKIO, Jan. 24.—Grave news is received from Peking where, because of the presence of the plague, the legation quarter has been segregated. Foreigners have thus far escaped the infection. The pestilence is reported as spreading rapidly throughout Manchuria.

A fact significant of the seriousness
of the situation is that Chinese authorities have decided to permit the Japanese officials and physicians to assume control of the sanitary measures,
and to conduct the necessary preventive campaign.

The Japanese officials in South Manchuria have brought medical experts from the stricken districts and are expending much money to check the progress of the epidemic in Darin and Mukden. They have met with some success at these points, but the epidemic had obtained an irresistible hold in Kwang Ching-Tze before the Japanese were allowed to take control.

There are reports that the garrison
at Tien Tsin has been infected.

Ship Quarantined at Amoy.
AMOY (China) Jan. 24.—Owing to the prevalence of the plague, all ships arriving here from the North will be

Cold Feet?

LID MAY NOT BE PRIED OFF IN ILLINOIS VOTE-BUYING SCANDAL.

General Impression Is That Members of Grand Jury Feel They Have Bitten Off Too Much to Chew—Day's Developments Indicate Disposition to Hush Up Matter.
Politicians Reported as "Resting Easier."

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
DANVILLE (Ill.) Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The grand jury investigation of vote buying and selling came to an abrupt halt this afternoon in order to take up a murder investigation, and while it is stated that it will begin again tomorrow, those in a position to know are free in their assertions that little more will be done.
That plain words come from members of the grand jury have gotten "cold feet."

Foreman Woodard does not appear to be nearly as sanguine of success tonight as he was last night. In fact he made the statement today that he believed that the investigation would hurt the town and that he was told that this should matter little to him at he was not a resident, he replied that though he was not, he did not believe in doing it harm.

The most significant development of the day was the discovered absence of City Attorney Jones from the city which was set for preliminary examination this morning. When the case was called, Jones was not present and no one knew where he was. He is still absent tonight, and while it is not charged that he has left the city, many think it peculiar that he should be absent at this time, especially when he knows he is to appear before the grand jury to tell what he knows of vote buying. He is said to be in Decatur, but a long distance message there tonight failed to locate him.

CANNON'S SON-IN-LAW.
Some of the Chicago newspapers were
the means of creating a great deal of indignation this morning by the announcement that E. X. Lessor, son-in-law of Speaker Cannon, had disappeared and had probably gone to Washington to consult Mr. Cannon.
It is said that Lessor is out of town, having been called to Chicago, Gary, Ind., and Detroit on business. However, before leaving he gave Foreman Woodard his complete itinerary and told him a telegram would bring him back to Danville on the first train.

The investigation will be taken up tomorrow but it will not be surprising if this week sees an end of it. There is a general feeling that the powers that be have succeeded in limiting the investigation and the opinion prevails
that only one indictment will be returned.

The developments of the day were:
Foreman Isaac Woodard, appeared in open court, complaining of the alleged failure of Sheriff John T. Shep-

Heiress Proud of Her Policeman Husband.

Mrs. Arthur Maurice Werner,
Who Was Miss Giulia Moro-
sini, Heiress, Is Proud of Big, Brawny Spouse—He Sees
His Resemblance to Jay Gould and Garfield—Happy Pair in St. Louis on Honeymoon.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Maurice Werner are in St. Louis on their honeymoon, having arrived tonight.
The bride was Miss Giulia Morosini,
who inherited her father's many millions in New York, and the bridegroom was a mounted policeman who saved Miss Morosini's life. As a reward her father made him manager of his vast estate.

Werner says that a bit of education,
common sense and tact are attributes of success. He is distinctly the head of the house, acts for both, talks for both and treats her in the same manner as he treats his master, and would treat his wife, and she likes it.

What she thinks of her husband was evidenced by a naive comparison of him and Commodore Vanderbilt. He came about when Werner was asked to what he attributed his success.

"Well, you see, when I was on the police force I came in contact with all sorts of people," he replied. "I learned human nature. A man with tact, a little education and common sense—
that is all there is to it."

One paper commenting editorially on the wedding, said that he had been a good policeman. "That is a tribute I appreciate," he said.

When Werner talks his wife lets him have the floor. She is most proud of her big bridegroom. Once when during the interview some of his characteristics were touched upon, she exclaimed quickly: "And he is the best man in the world. You just ought to know him better."

Then Werner became philosophical.
"Take some other men who have got along in the world, and they did not start much higher than I did," he said.

"Mrs. Werner's father was a sailor before the mast. Jay Gould sold rat traps to get a start. Garfield was a canal boat driver, drove a canal boat."

"And even Vanderbilt," began Mrs.
Werner, but Mr. Werner did not let her finish, and the comparison was not fully made, although it shows what
Mrs. Werner thinks of her husband.

Many things might have happened to prevent Miss Morosini and her hero meeting according to bits of autobiography let fall tonight by Werner.
He told her how he traveled for a week and suit firm in New York when he was a young man and how he bought a job on the police force that he might study dentistry at odd hours. When he joined the force the lecture hours were changed and he could not attend. The result was he had to stick to the force until his heroism was rewarded by Mr. Moro-sini.

Mrs. Werner, slender waisted and faultlessly gowned, sat with her jeweled hands clasped over a table
drinking in the words of her husband, though doubtless the story was an old one to her. Admiration lit her features when the question of his management of her estate was touched upon.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24.—The entire police and detective force of the city and of a private detective agency are endeavoring to solve the robbery of $35,000 worth of jewelry
from the home of Mrs. John Thaw,

Every pawnbroker here has been furnished a description of the stolen goods, which also has been furnished

The list is headed by a two-strand pearl necklace, one strand of fifty-four pearls and the other of fifty-six pearls,
the value of which is given as $17,000.
No value is given for the other articles individually, but the whole is estimated at $35,000, and comprises the following:

One gold necklace set with emeralds
and pearls.

Gold chateaux bag containing small gold purse monogrammed "E.D.T."

Gold locket.

Grit and Sturdy Constitution
Fail Against Assassin's
Six Bullets.

Senator Beveridge Will Have Charge of Funeral—Relatives at Bellside.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—David Graham Phillips has lost his brave fight for life. He died at Bellevue Hospital late tonight, a victim of Fin-nugh Coyle Goldborough, an eccentric and emotional musician, who, although of refined tastes and aristocratic southern stock, shot the novelist down yesterday for a fancied grievance, then killed himself.

Phillips fought valiantly to live, but six bullet holes were too much, even for his grit and sturdy constitution, and at 11:10 o'clock he died.

He was conscious up to within an hour of his death.

At the bedside were his sister, Mrs.
Caroline Prevert; his brother, Harrison W. Phillips; his personal physician, Dr. Eugene Fuller, and Dr. Donovan of Bellevue. The immediate cause was hemorrhage of the right lung,
which had been pierced by one of the steel-clad bullets from Goldborough's automatic pistol.

Up to 9 o'clock the novelist was resting quietly, and both physicians and relatives were hopeful of the outcome.
He had been conscious all day and had received visitors, among them his sister and brother. United States Senator Beveridge of Indiana, and several writers of note, their visits were extremely brief, but all who came away appeared optimistic.

After 8 o'clock the patient took a turn for the worse, and although the surgeons did everything in their power, the end was inevitable. The physicians met directly after death and decided to request the Coroner's jury to dispense with an autopsy.

It is believed this will be granted, although an autopsy is usual in homicicide cases.

Harrison Phillips announced that Senator Beveridge would have charge of the funeral arrangements. The Senator returned to Washington this evening, but probably will come back to New York in the morning. In the meantime, it is thought that Phillips's body will be taken either to the Princeton Club or to the National Arts Club.

Places Trust in Her Bible.

"GOD'S WILL NOT MINE, BE DONE," SAYS MOTHER.

Death of Novelist Phillips Borne
With Fortitude by Parent Who Had Hoped to See Him Reach Los Angeles in Accordance With His Promise Recently Made to Her.

When David Graham Phillips, forgetting his excruciating agony, immediately after he was shot on Monday
by the Socialist, Goldborough, thought only of his mother in Los Angeles, saying to the friends about him: "My mother is an old lady and the shock might kill her," he was comforted
by her wonderful fortitude. Although bowed with years, her hair snowy white, she is mentally as alert
as a woman of forty.

Mrs. Margaret Jane Phillips, the widow mother of Graham, as she proudly calls her distinguished son,
was seen yesterday at her apartments
at No. 222 South Grand avenue. She reverently caressed the much-thumbed pages of a venerable Bible that lay open in her lap and replied:

"Here is where my trust is placed. It seems incredible that my boy, in the prime of his brilliant literary career,
should have been taken from the world,
innocent of any wrong, and I had hope that he would be spared. God's will,
though, and not mine, be done."

"For many months," she added, "I have been writing, and I had hoped to have every letter that he wrote for me
just a few weeks and visit me here in Los Angeles. Only a little while ago I received from him the message that he would come to see me, hoping to arrive before the opening of spring."

Mrs. Phillips, journeyed hither from the old home at Madison, Ind., four years ago, expecting to remain a month, and has made this her home ever since. Her husband, a leading banker of Madison, died ten years ago.

At the same place in New York where Graham lived, his younger brother, Harrison H., and his sister, Mrs.
Caroline Prevert, resided. The only word Mrs. Phillips received yesterday aside from the news report, was contained in the following dispatches from them:

"Graham shot and seriously wounded by crazy man, near his home. Have just come from hospital, where I saw operation. Glad to tell you he is doing splendidly and all three doctors believe he will come through all right.
Caroline and I with him constantly.
Do not worry. Harry."

FOUR REMAIN IN THE FIGHT.

Young Leads But Lacks Votes Enough to Win.

Standpatters Likely to Break to Kenyon or Funk.

Garst Next Candidate Who May Drop Out of Race.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
DES MOINES (Iowa) Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] H. M. Byers, having withdrawn from the Senatorial race in Iowa, and O. A. Frank, having been abandoned by his two votes, the four remaining candidates for senator divided up the fifteen extra votes today, and the deadlock went merrily on.

Senator L. A. Young now has thirty-five votes and expects to lose some of them tomorrow, although it would take forty-five additional votes to elect him. W. S. Kenyon ran up from twenty-seven to thirty-four today and expects to gain some more. A. B. Funk now has twenty-seven and expects to get five or six of the eight votes cast today for Warren Garst, who is likely to be the next candidate to drop out of the race.

Before the end of the week the deadlock will consist of Kenyon, Funk, Young and the Democratic candidate, Clarence B. Fox, who is likely to be the next candidate to drop out of the race.

Representative Dabney today offered the bill agreed upon by the Democrats for the enactment of the Nebraska Bank Guaranty law in Iowa.

DEMOCRATS STILL UNAGREED.

First Ballot for United States Senator at Denver Falls Far Short of Choice.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

DENVER, Jan. 24.—With the sixty-six Democratic members of the Legislature hopelessly divided on the selection of a successor to the late United States Senator Charles J. Hughes, Jr., the first ballot was taken in separate session today. The Democratic vote was divided among nine persons, only three of whom had previously announced their candidacy for the Senatorship. Several favorite Republican sons were honored with thirty-three Republican votes. One Republican member was absent at the opening.

The Democrats voted as follows: Robert W. Speer, 26; Alva Adams, 20; Charles S. Thomas, 5; Charles B. Ward, 5; Congressman F. T. Taylor, 3; Thomas J. O'Donnell, 3; Congressman John A. Martin, 2; Gov. John F. Shafroth, 1; Joseph M. Maupay, 1; Total, 66.

The Republican vote was: Joel F. Valle, 10; Frank C. Goudy, 8; J. W. McCleary, 5; Clyde C. Dawson, 4; Cassimiro Barera, 2; Fred O. Roof, 2; Jesse G. Northcutt, 1. One absent. Total, 36.

Total vote of two houses, 99. Necessary for choice, 50.

Tomorrow a final ballot will be taken, but there is no likelihood of any material change in the result as far as the Democrats are concerned, further than the addition of a vote or two to totals of the leaders.

MARTINE CERTAIN WINNER.

Receives Within One Vote of Enough to Elect in New Jersey—James Smith, Jr., Withdraws From Race.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

TRENTON (N. J.) Jan. 24.—The contest in New Jersey for the successor to John Kean, Jr. in the United States Senate, was practically settled today when James E. Martine, who won in the Democratic primaries last September, and who has the active support of Governor Wilson, received forty votes in the separate balloting in the two houses of the Legislature.

This was within one vote of a majority of the total membership of both houses, and it was freely predicted Martine would easily have a majority tomorrow's joint meeting.

James Smith, Jr., realizing he was beaten, closed his headquarters and returned to his home in Newark. Before doing so, he gave out a statement in which he said his supporters from further obligations to stand by him and sought to place on Gov. Wilson the responsibility for the selection of Martine.

Smith said in part:

"In view of the preponderance of legislative favor for Gov. Wilson's candidate for the United States Senate, I feel I should no longer stay the consumption of the executive's purpose."

"In reaching this conclusion, I am influenced by two reasons. My regard for the feelings of the local men who still give me their support, in spite of the indignities to which they are being subjected, and my unwillingness to stand longer in the way of the plans which the new friends of my old party are so industriously formulating."

"As I lay aside my candidacy for Senatorial honors, releasing those who have been faithful to me and pledging them my life-long gratitude, my sincere wish is that the Democratic party may retain the confidence of the people; that it may hold to its close union with the masses, and that greater triumphs in the State and nation await it."

The Democrats today were scattered in an agreement as ever. The vote: Thomas H. Carter, Republican, 38; T. J. Walsh, Democrat, 15; scattering Republicans, 2; scattering Democrats, 2; necessary to choice, 50.

Mrs. Thorbus was introduced to the Governor by Senator Gates. She said that she had been led to hope for an early and a favorable decision of her mother's case, though the Governor made no promise.

REVOLUTIONIST MADERO'S FATHER SAYS THE UPRISING HAS FAILED.

Aged Mexican Millionaire Declares Force Is Not Right Way to Seek Dissolution of Government—Is Friend of President Diaz, Who Has Restored to Him His Principality Which Had Been Confiscated.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

GALVESTON (Tex.) Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Francisco Madero, father of President Madero, leader of the Mexican revolution, back from a trip East, declares the disturbance in Mexico for which his son is held responsible is a failure.

The aged Madero, who was counted among the wealthiest land owners in Mexico, says he has never opposed the movement, not because he believed his son was wrong, but because he says conditions are not such as to warrant the dissolution of government by force. He is a friend of President Diaz and believes that the latter has dealt precipitately with the trouble in Mexico.

Asked about his son, he said he knows nothing about him nor even his whereabouts, except from newspaper reports. After young Madero escaped into Texas, just prior to the revolution, the Mexican government confiscated all of the property of the Madero family by order of Gen. Diaz. The property of the elder Madero, aggregating over 30,000 acres and other property, has been restored to him.

The old man says his trip to New York was purely a business matter and in no way connected with the trouble in Mexico. He will spend the winter in Texas and return to Mexico in the spring.

seven men, armed with knives. It was about 7:30 o'clock on the night of January 23, the day after the seizure of the Horner.

Christmas is reported to have escaped uninjured after backing up to the wall and facing his assailants with a Mauser pistol. One of the men threw a knife that pierced the filibuster's hat.

The quarrel with Bonilla, while less sensational, is of much more importance to the insurgent cause. Christmas is the life of that, and if the row assumes really serious proportions, it is declared by his many friends here that he is just the man to throw up his commission in the Mexican army and leave for his home in Louisiana.

The trouble is said to have started several years ago when Christmas was chief of police of the capital of Honduras. Certain acts of his were criticized by several members of the Senate on the floor of that house, and the fiery American resented it. Bonilla was said to have taken the side of the Senators and Christmas is said to have slapped him on the cheek.

When Christmas came down here to fight the battles of the revolutionist leaders, it was official that he and a truck had been patched up and the two men were friends again. Just what has caused the present trouble is not generally known here.

WEST VIRGINIANS MAKING BOOKS

ON VERDICT IN SCHENK HEARING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WHEELING (W. Va.) Jan. 24.—Apparently unmoved by the bitter invective from Assistant Prosecutor Fred L. Maury, in his opening argument yesterday before the jury that is trying the case, Laura Farnsworth Schenk, charged with administering poison to her husband, today broke down and sobbed continually while her own attorneys—three of them—presented their side to the jury. The first emotion came when Attorney Frank A. O'Brien, in opening, mentioned the two children, of whose company she has been deprived since her arrest.

It was while her chief attorney, J. P. O'Brien, was making his plea that she showed the most marked emotion, and the juryman, too, shed tears, while there were many tear-dimmed eyes in the crowded courtroom.

O'Brien drew a vivid picture of the lonely incarceration of the prisoner on the three real holidays of the year—Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's—she was not even permitted to send her two children the little presents she had worked and made for them, the work of her own hands, he declared.

In the morning session, Mr. Maury resumed his argument in behalf of the State. He again touched upon the principal points brought out in relation to the poison found in the medicine taken by Schenk and the fact that the defendant had bought it.

Frank A. O'Brien's address was largely devoted to the presentation of the defense, paid his respects to Daniel Z. Phillips, who offered damaging testimony against Mrs. Schenk, characterizing Phillips as a "wringing" of the most marked kind.

The case is to go to the jury tomorrow afternoon.

Shortly before court opened today, deputy sheriffs were sent out to clear the streets before the courthouse, where men were making bets on the verdict.

Books are being made on the result.

DEATH MYSTERY DEPENDS.

Man Last Seen With Aged Woman Found Killed Is Discovers Hanging in Pump House.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ELMHURST (Cal.) Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The belief that Mrs. Mary E. Swanson, who was found dead in bed in a lonely cottage here today, was murdered, was strengthened this morning when the body of an unidentified man, aged about 35 years, later recognized as a man with whom Mrs. Swanson had been seen in the cottage last Saturday morning, was discovered hanging from a cross beam dangling by a rope of wire about his neck.

The man, who had been dead for ten or twelve hours, was neatly dressed, with new clothes and underwear. He had two severe lacerations on the scalp. On the top of his head a piece of scalp, including hair and skin, two inches square, was scraped off, while the skin was torn off two-thirds of the forehead from a gash about an inch wide. The injuries had evidently been inflicted not more than three days ago, as they were still open.

Every development in this investigation by the police and coroner points to the woman having been murdered. The bruises on the woman's forehead, the discovery of the

Doctors Advised Operation—Decided to Try Great Kidney Remedy

I want to tell you in a few words what Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root did for me, believing that my testimony may do some other suffering person a great deal of good.

About six years ago, I was dangerously ill, consulted three doctors, all of whom said I had kidney trouble. One of the doctors analyzed my urine and reported that I had gravel, and further said that in order to regain my health and life, an operation would be necessary. I did not want to be operated on, as I was afraid that I would not recover. Someone told me of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and said it was a reliable medicine for kidney trouble, so I decided to try it and went to Mr. Rose, the druggist, at 303 Central avenue, Minneapolis, and bought a bottle, took it, noticed results and continued taking it until I was entirely cured.

Having been free from any kidney trouble for over six years, I consider that I am absolutely cured and know that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root has the credit.

I never fail to tell my friends about your remedy, as I believe it is the best of its kind. Your U. & O. Ointment is also very good. We are never without a jar in our house.

Yours very truly,
MRS. MARGARET E. ANDERSON,
Minneapolis, Minn.

State of Minnesota,

Personally appeared before me this 23rd day of Sept. 1909, Mrs. Margaret E. Anderson of the City of Minneapolis of the State of Minnesota, who subscribed the above, and on oath says that the same is true in substance and in fact.

foot board of the bed on which she lay had been freshly cracked from post to post, as though in a struggle, the rumpled condition of the rug on the floor and the carelessness with which every bit of correspondence which might tend to give information of her niece or of any one connected with the woman was destroyed, led the detectives to believe that the arrangement of the chloroform-soaked sieve on the face of Mrs. Swanson, the clean night clothes and the flowers in the woman's hair was simply the carefully planned method of the murderer or murderers to hide the crime under the guise of self-destruction.

Young Farm Hand Tells of Careful Planning to End Father's Life—Expresses No Sorrow Over Crime.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SEATTLE, Jan. 24.—John Drost, the 22-year-old farm hand who shot and killed his father, Peter, at the Drost dairy, near North Bend yesterday, said today the crime was not committed in the heat of anger, but that he had planned it for two days and had experimented with an automatic revolver and a rifle, finally deciding on a shotgun as most effective. He shot his father through the neck, but the old man lingered two hours.

Drost says the story he tells on the witness stand will justify his act, and that if his father had acceded to a certain demand his life would have been spared.

The family came from Holland in 1904, and are of superior education and well-to-do.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY.
PASADENA GETS SOAKING.
PASADENA, Jan. 24.—The third big rain of the season started in today morning with a slow drizzle which thickened into a heavy rain during the afternoon and evening. There was a short stop in the rain about 10 o'clock, but the downpour set in with a vim. The total rainfall for the storm up to 10 o'clock tonight was 1.25 inches. The rain came in a four-hour time for the orchardists and ranchers, many of whom have their orange groves and fields plowed.

HEAVY AT ALTADENA.
ALTADENA, Jan. 24.—The rainfall for the storm in Altadena up to 10 o'clock tonight was 1.75 inches, making a total for the season of 8.90 inches.

STOCKMEN ELATED.
GLENDORA, Jan. 24.—Rain began falling lightly at 8 o'clock a. m. and continued to rain gently until 2 p. m., when it developed into a heavy downpour, with every prospect of being the best rain of the season. At 2:30 p. m. the rain gauge kept by the Glendora Heights Orange and Lemon Association registered .25 inches, making the total for the season 5.65 inches. The fruit, grain and stock men are elated over the prospects of seasonable rains and confidently look forward to an unusually prosperous year.

PROVES BENEFICIAL.
SANTA MONICA, Jan. 24.—Through-out the night and all of today and during the evening hours there were steady showers, which by evening had added .45 of an inch to the total rainfall for the season, which now amounts to 3.88 inches. While the total is less than half that of the corresponding date of last year, it may be said in favor of this season that all of the rainstorms have been so mild and steady that practically every drop of the precipitation has soaked into the soil. There have been no storm waters to rush away to the sea, carrying everything before them while falling to contribute to the conserved moisture. The less than four inches that have fallen have proven more beneficial to the ranchers and gardeners than three times the amount would have been, falling in wrenching downpours.

RAINS ALL DAY.
POMONA, Jan. 24.—Rain has been falling steadily all day and the indications are that it will rain all night. The rainfall for the storm up to 7 o'clock was .83 inches and the rainfall for the season up to the same hour is 5.66 inches.

GROUND IN CONDITION.
MONROVIA, Jan. 24.—With the ground in fine condition for seeding and the hope of late rains encouraged by records of past years, every man, team and plow available are turning furrows on the dry grain lands. Hundreds of acres of barley and oat hay have been sown in the past week, and other hundreds on the Redwin and adjacent holdings are being put in condition for seeding as rapidly as possible. Old timers believe there is still a good chance for a grain and hay crop if there are late rains. Rain has fallen steadily all the afternoon. At 7 p. m. the precipitation was .71 of an inch for the storm and 5.19 inches for the season.

RAINS ALL AFTERNOON.
SAN PEDRO, Jan. 24.—Rain has fallen here all afternoon, and with the wind blowing strong from the southeast, indications are that the storm will continue tonight. According to the Point Firmin light station gauge at 5 o'clock tonight, the precipitation for the storm was .15 of an inch, making a total of 2.83 inches for the season, as against ten inches for the same period last season.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY.
MAXIMUM OF GOOD.
RIVERSIDE, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rain has been falling intermittently all day. Up to 10 o'clock precipitation was .40 of an inch, making the total for season .82 inches. Storm has come gently and will do the maximum amount of good to the ranchers. As none of it is wasted.

CONTINUES CLOUDY.
ELSONORE, Jan. 24.—There has been considerable cloudy weather and a shower of rain fell before 10 o'clock this morning. It continues cloudy.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.
WELCOMED BY RANCHERS.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN DIEGO, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A drizzling rain began here this afternoon. Although it follows closely on the storm of last week, the rainfall tonight is welcomed by the county's ranching interests of the county. The precipitation so far for the storm is .50 inches.

ORANGE COUNTY.
CROPS WILL PROFIT.
SANTA ANA, Jan. 24.—Rainfall today was .45 inch, with .32 inch for the storm and 2.96 inches for the season. Rain has been falling steadily and all of it has been going into the ground, thus doing the greatest possible good, every section of the county growing whatever crop will profit by this fall of rain.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.
SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Continued rain throughout the county added materially to the precipitation for the season today and at midnight the rain is falling steadily in all sections. Orange growers declare the storm means hundreds of thousands of dollars to the trees. Already the beneficial effects are noted in an added greenness to the trees. March is predicted, will bring a more substantial blossoming than in seasons past as a result.

"AN EYE FOR AN EYE." ETC.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.]
SAN JOSE, Jan. 24.—"An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, and a life for a life," is the inscription appearing on huge sign boards along the mountain road between San Jose and Santa Cruz. It is intended as a warning to speeding motorists. A device skull and cross bones makes the warning more vivid. It is said that the mountaineers and ranchers of the district have threatened to take the law into their own hands if the speeding nuisance is not abated.

DYSPEPSIA-PROOF
How Many Meals Can Be Thoroughly Enjoyed By Any Stomach.

Costs You Nothing to Try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Men, as a rule, are first discovered by their enemies. Their antagonists turn on the searchlights, and the proof of merit will lie in being able to stand the flash.

It was only in this way that Mr. White ever knew that dyspepsia was one of Mr. Black's worst enemies. Sitting face to face at a two-by-four table, he handed his afflicted friend the bill of fare:

Oyster Cocktail. Stuffed Olives. Boston Clam Chowder. Strained Gumbo. Sirloin Steak with Mushrooms. Roast Beef Hash. Boiled Ox Tongue with Sauerkraut. Lobster a la Newburg. Baked Pork and Beans. Combination Crab Salad. Hot Mince Pie. Pineapple Fritters.

Mr. White ordered a "little of each." Mr. Dyspepsia Black ordered crackers and a glass of milk. "I had such a big breakfast this morning," he said, "that I will just take a bite to keep you company. But Mr. White could not be deceived. "I am afraid you can't stand the gleam, Mr. Black. Why don't you say you have dyspepsia and be done with it? You'll always have that hungry look anyhow, as long as you have dyspepsia. Now, listen. My stomach was in just as bad condition as yours at one time. But now I can eat anything, at any time. For instance this clam chowder or sirloin steak or even the lobster would be just as welcome to my stomach as your crackers and milk. You don't realize how this dyspepsia business is robbing you of your spirit, of your energy and ability to think quickly. I can't help notice it. You haven't the cheer and sociability you had three months ago. Now I'll tell you what to do, and that's the cheerful Mr. White took a vial from his pocket and extracted a wee tablet. "There, there is a tablet that contains an ingredient, one grain of which digests 3000 grains of food. For even the worst dyspeptic it is the only thing that really gives relief. The reason is it relieves the stomach of nearly all the work it has to do, digests everything in the stomach and stimulates the gastric juice. I can't eat along without them. They are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get them anywhere on earth for 50c a package."

Yes, it is true. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets absolutely stop heartburn, nausea, indigestion, dyspepsia of the worst type, sour stomach, bloaty feeling and all eruptions and irritation, and freshen and invigorate the stomach. They cheer you up and make you get all the good there is in your food. You will forget you ever had a stomach to worry you.

"Higher-ups." Too!

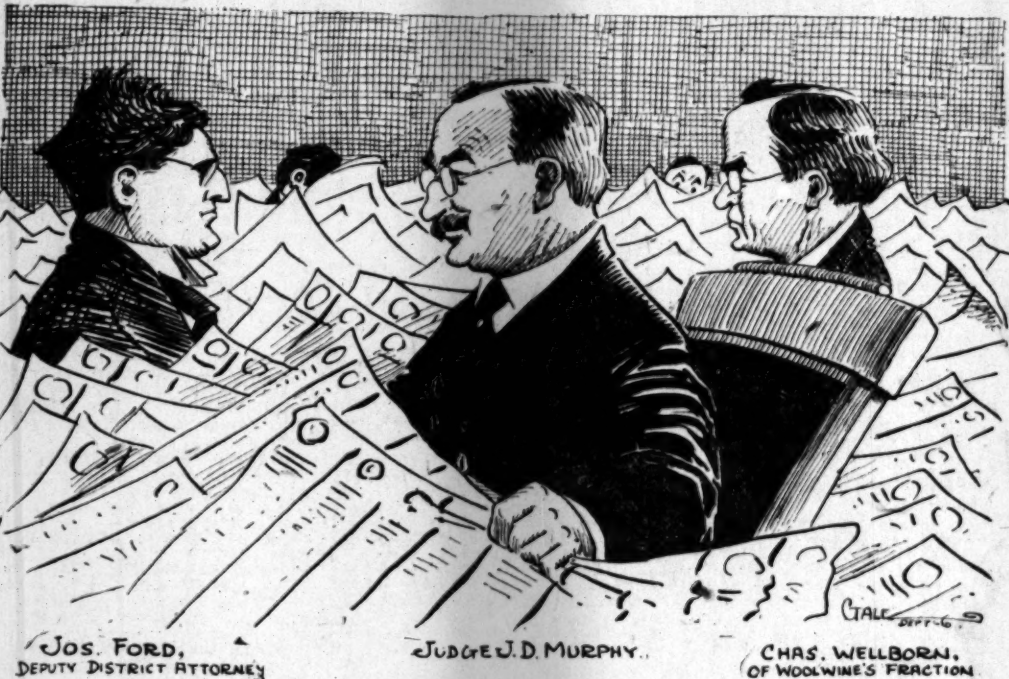

PERJURY REVELATIONS HIT MANY GOO-GOOS.

Thirty-Three on Good Government Woolwine Petitions Found to Have Sworn Falsely, and These in Only Fourteen Precincts—Indications That He Hadn't Enough Legitimate Signatures to Nominate Him.

"HIGHER UPS" are concerned in the election scandal which has sprung from the contest which was instituted against the election of Capt. Fredericks as District Attorney of this county.

Among those whose names appear on more than one nominating petition for the same office, which is in direct violation of the law, is that of Councilman Martin Betkouski. He was chairman of the committee whose duty it was to

Assistant District Attorney Ford entered strenuous objections both before and after the ballots had been counted against introducing them in evidence as the returns were being made. It was pointed out that at least the ballots were not in the proper condition see that Good Government petitions were filed in due form. He signed petitions which were used to place the name of Thomas Lee Woolwine on both the Good Government and the Democratic tickets.

More sensational developments yesterday in connection with the progress of the recount, Judge Murphy said, was that the number of persons who committed perjury in signing Good Government nominating petitions is greater than was first suspected. It is shown by an official investigation of the records of the County Clerk's office which is now in progress.

PERJURY AND TRICKERY.

In a canvass of fourteen precincts yesterday, it developed that thirty-three persons had committed perjury in swearing that they had signed only one petition.

That there was trickery in making up the number of petitions which were required to nominate Woolwine is indicated by the fact that many of the signatures were discovered which were never signed by the person who was alleged to be endorsing Woolwine as a candidate. The verification deputy had apparently written in a name in the body of the petition and then attached his verification to it. A cursory examination, such as was all that the County Clerk had time to give at the time the petitions were checked up, would not reveal the deception which was practiced.

The indications now are that the official investigation which is being made will show that Woolwine did not have enough signatures to place him in nomination as a Good Government candidate. There are an average of five irregularities in each precinct. These figures make it apparent that there are at least 2000 of his petitions which are void.

The result of the recount in precinct No. 3 was startling. It showed that there were twenty-eight less votes for Fredericks than had been counted and that there were forty-six ballots for Woolwine more than had been counted. This made a total gain of seventy-four votes for Woolwine.

A strange feature in connection with the returns in this precinct is that they when they reached the court.

"It is preposterous to assume that in a precinct which is as strong Good Government as this one is known to be that a mistake such as this could have been made by the election board," he told the court. "To me it seems impossible that under the scrutinizing eyes of Woolwine that such an error could have passed by unnoticed by every one."

SEALED ONES CORRECT.

The only returns which were found to be correct or nearly correct were those which were made in envelopes which were sealed. Where the law was complied with it was found that the election board made few mistakes.

The wax was as firm as the day it was applied on the envelope which contained the ballots cast in precinct No. 3. When the recount was made it was discovered that Fredericks should have been given one more vote and that three more had been given Woolwine than he deserved.

There were slight indications that in precinct No. 5 part of the seals had been broken. However other seals held the packages together. The recount tallied exactly with that of the election board.

The returns in precinct No. 6 were properly sealed and it was argued that the only error was in failing to give Fredericks two votes and casting one too many for Woolwine.

The returns from precinct No. 7 are missing. What has become of them no one at the Courthouse seems to know. The deputy county clerk in charge of them made a search during the entire day and could not locate them.

from precinct No. 8 and found it broken when the lights went out. After waiting for more than half an hour for an electrician to remedy the trouble, court adjourned until today.

At the rate at which the count is now progressing the contest will last three or four months. It is possible that the attorneys may be able to examine the ballots more quickly as they become more familiar with them.

AND A FOWL SEPARATES THEM.

Sunnyside Women, Once Friends, Draw Apart Over Ballot Question and Then Serious Charge Is Made.

A neighborhood scrap, which threatens to embroil Sunnyside, received its preliminary airing yesterday morning in Justice Reeves' court, when Mrs. Emma Emerich was arraigned on the charge of petty larceny. Mrs. Agnes Shea, a neighbor, is the complaining witness. She alleges that Mrs. Emerich stole one of her fancy chickens, valued at $1.50.

Friends of Mrs. Emerich assert that she never took the fowl, and have rallied to her defense. Mrs. Shea's friends on the other hand, claim proof is unquestionable that she did.

At one time Mrs. Shea and Mrs.

ON TO BURBANK TROLLEY GOING.

Plans Completed for the Extension There.

Will Open Rich Territory to Los Angeles.

Homes Expected to Follow Pacific Electric.

Plans have been completed for the extension of the interurban line of the Pacific Electric from Glendale to Burbank.

The new line will open an exceedingly attractive territory in the San Fernando Valley, which, with a rapid and efficient service between Burbank and Los Angeles, will result in the building of many homes there.

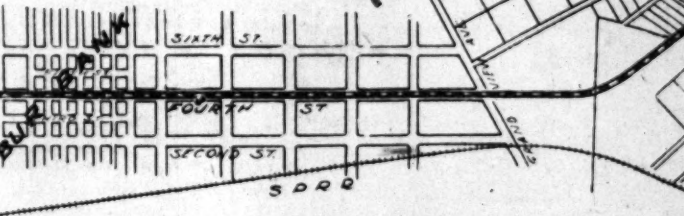

Those interested subscribers to the Burbank Electric to insure the company against loss during the business-making era of the line, and also additional money for the purchase of the necessary right of way.

The line will branch from the present Glendale line at Arden avenue. Just above the city of Glendale, and a short distance south of Casa Verdugo. The line will cross Central avenue, Fountain street, Melrose street, Remington avenue and Park avenue, which runs through Verdugo Park, hence across a large acreage of fertile territory, reaching the city limits of Burbank at Grandview avenue. The route through Burbank will be along Fourth street, terminating for the present at Cypress avenue. Between Grandview and Cypress the following crossed, Sonoma, Vine, Laurel, Alameda, Providencia, Verdugo, Tujunga, Angelino, Olive, Orange Grove, Palm and Magnolia avenues will be crossed.

Before the consolidation of the Pacific Electric and the Los Angeles Pacific, the Burbank committee called on H. E. Huntington and asked for the extension of this line, as through it the eastern end of the great San Fernando Valley could be opened.

Huntington considered the matter, together with the amount of possible traffic in the district, and offered to build the line on condition that the Burbank people furnish the right of way and guarantee the line against operation loss during the time necessary to build up the population of the district served. This requirement was made because of the rather sparsely settled district through which the line will pass.

The right of way has been surveyed through from Glendale to Burbank.

Extension of the Pacific Electric's Glendale Line to Burbank, the construction of which is to be begun soon. The light-dotted line shows the present trolley, and the heavy-dotted line that to be built, starting at a point about half way between Glendale and North Glendale. This extension will open a rich and beautiful territory very close to the city.

CASH TO PUSH FIGHT FOR EQUITABLE RATE.

WITH ENTHUSIASM characteristic of the Los Angeles business spirit $10,000 was subscribed at a mass meeting yesterday for the purpose of continuing the fight for equitable freight rates in the San Joaquin Valley. There were further tentative contributions enough to insure the $20,000 needed to carry out the aggressive campaign that is to be pushed to a final conclusion.

Upward of 100 business concerns were represented when M. H. Newmark, president of the Associated Jobbers, read the call for the meeting and outlined the twelve-year campaign that has been conducted to secure a fair adjustment of freight in the lower San Joaquin Valley, a trade empire worthy of the best effort. Twice a fair adjustment of rates has been made by the railroads only to be revoked because of pressure brought to bear by San Francisco influence. Now a decision has been obtained fair to Los Angeles, but again San Francisco has intervened and asked for a rehearing by the State Board of Railroad Commissioners, which will be granted or refused at a meeting of the board to be held in San Francisco next Tuesday.

"If you aid us," said Newmark, "we win a trade territory as rich and important as some of the countries of Europe. San Francisco is fighting to continue an injustice, while Los Angeles wants only approximate justice. To do this we have got to have the munitions of war. We can't win fights with cheap powder."

F. P. Gregson, traffic manager of the Associated Jobbers, went into an able and exhaustive review of the San Joaquin rates, and the other railroad cases of interest to Los Angeles.

"The distributive trade of Los Angeles amounts to $200,000,000 annually, to which it has grown from $1,000,000 in twenty-five years," said Gregson.

along the easiest route, and in the general direction where improvement in service will do the most good, and the Burbank committee is busily engaged in gathering the $40,000 that is expected to cover the loss in operation during the next three years.

When this fund is complete construction of the line will be rushed and this is expected to be within a few weeks.

PRETTY MAIDENS THEY WILL MEET

SUNSHINE GIRLS PLAN PARTY FOR LONESOME MEN.

Rumored Long Beach Bachelors Who Put Their Cards in a Charity Bundle of Aprons, Will Be "Among Those Present": One Hundred Vivacious Girls Will Entertain Them.

It came to something after all! At least it has started well, and good news only knows where it will stop.

The "Amalgamated Association of Baldhead Bachelors" at Long Beach, declared the nine fates with amazing bravado, the day before Christmas, when they sent the Los Angeles branch of the Sunshine Society 600 dainty aprons for the poor and stuffed the personal cards in the pocket of each apron. The Sunshine Society has 100 pretty girl members. The poor got 100 aprons, but there were no cards in the pockets when they did so.

Mrs. James Fox, president of the society, now quietly announces that Friday evening she will entertain "several" young men from Long Beach at tea and that after the tea party their timid guests will be permitted to attend a smart function which the Sunshine Society is giving that night at the Strathmore.

Progressive whist and dancing will be features of the evening's diversion, but the chances are that those will be less popular than others which the situation suggests.

Just how many of the forlorn Long Beach have made good, Mrs. Fox delicately refuses to announce. It is tacitly understood that the sunny reception is really the "come out party" of the bachelors and Cupid must surely tremble at the possibility of this. This is no less than the fate of the bachelors and maidens, if for other reason than the fact that dances lie in prospect.

Mrs. Fox seems actually to encourage the danger, for she naively announces that she is at home to the society and its friends every Thursday of each month at her residence, No. 2100 Halldale avenue. With 100 pretty girls to chaperone she, proving herself a lady of great courage.

The bachelor who gave The Times reporter this story, insists, however, that Mrs. Fox is unfair in her tactics because she will not introduce a bachelor to one stunning maiden, but insists on confusing the fellow out of all wits by introducing him to a dozen beauties.

"There is safety in numbers, is right," said he, "but there are times when a man doesn't want to be saved."

DOESN'T LIKE THE SPOTS?

Woman Complains That Man Whom She Sold Black-and-White Cow Stopped Payments on Check.

Declaring that payment had been stopped by S. Kraut on a check while he had given her in payment for black and white cow, and that though the sale of the animal had been consummated, she was unable to get the money, Mrs. Ona Clark, 1615 East Fifty-second street, asked complaint against Kraut yesterday afternoon of Deputy District Attorney Richardson. She was told the case was out of the jurisdiction of the District Attorney's office, and if it taken into court, must be by a divorce channel.

The trouble at the bottom appears to be the opinion of some of Kraut's neighbors living a short distance west of Watts that a black cow with white spots on her flanks is not a good milker.

Inasmuch as the animal which Mrs. Clark said Kraut purchased from her bore these peculiar marks, he refused to accept it, and Mrs. Clark says he notified the bank on which he had issued the check, to stop payment.

KANSAS DINNER PROGRAMME.

H. H. Huntsberger, president of the Kansas Society, has announced the programme for the Kansas Day Dinner to be held in the Wright Callender building Saturday night. About 150 have advised John W. Huntsberger, 701 Grand building, of their purpose to attend. J. B. Lippincott will be toastmaster. George T. Overmyer will respond to "The Making of a State," Mrs. John M. Steele, "Laughs Best Who Laughs Last," George B. Harrison, "Kansas as a High Flyer," and Dell Schweitzer, "The Place to Live." Mrs. Charlotte Weaver will sing a solo, "The Liberty Bell."

Your own judgment will tell you that a store of this standing couldn't afford to trifle with your confidence by juggling figures or trying to mislead you. We are cutting our prices in half, because we want to make a quick turn of our clothing before we begin inventory, February first. We've got the best makes of clothing we can buy in America—and it's a shame to sell such clothing at half price. But right now—a dollar in the bank is better to us than two in clothing stock. Its main sources of profit in 1910 were Real Estate $345,310.53; Interest $240,586.36, and Building Construction $11,292.36. There were miscellaneous profits from architectural, insurance, rental and publishing departments. Every single cent of profit goes to the stockholders. Dividends aggregated for 1910 $448,392.11 in cash.

Because this Company is under able and honest management, no change having been made for 15 years. This insures a continuation of the clean-cut profit-making plan in which the Company has been successful.

Because none of this Company's stock has ever been, or is now, traded for real estate to its officers or any one else; no promotion stock has been given away or issued; no stocks sold under the full market value, and absolutely no commissions of any kind are paid to agents or salesmen for selling stock.

Because this is an old Company. It was founded in 1866, established in Los Angeles in 1895 and incorporated under the laws of California in 1899. It is now entering the 46th year of its existence.

Because this Company has an undivided profit or reserve of over $2,930,000.00, assuring future dividends. This reserve was increased in 1910 by $1,186,322.98. This company's capital and surplus is over $5,000,000.00.

Because this Company now owns over 2200 acres of land in or adjacent to Los Angeles worth over $2,200,000.00; mortgages and secured loans totaling over $2,784,000.00, and holds cash, building material, mills and equipment, and bank stock worth an additional $468,000.00. This is the security backing your investment.

Because no investor in this Company has ever failed to secure all of his money if he wanted it, without delay, questioning or argument. If you wish, you can have

Your Money Back in Two Minutes

The most important point for you to watch. No investor in this Company has ever failed to receive all of his money on demand. Even during the panic of 1907, investors received all of their money without a minute's delay. The Guarantee Fund of $48,000.00, held and managed by the Globe Savings Bank has for its sole object the protection from loss of those persons purchasing from the company not over $500 worth of stock. Its purpose is also to give you back your money on demand. Not a part of your money, but all of it. It has been able to refund all of an investor's money because

BOTH GUILTY, JURY VERDICT.

Man and Woman Must Suffer
for Ketchel Murder.

Imprisonment for Life the Recommendation.

Motion for New Trial Based on Technicalities.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

MARSHFIELD (Mo.) Jan. 24.—Guilty of murder in the first degree was the verdict returned today by the jury in the case of Walter A. Dipey and Goldie Smith, charged with the murder of Stanley Ketchel, the pugilist. Sentences of life imprisonment were recommended for each defendant.

The jury was out seventeen hours. Attorneys for the defendants will file a motion for a new trial tomorrow. The motion will include the allegation that the court erred in instructing the jury and also in admitting as testimony Ketchel's dying statement. "I guess they have got me," said Dipey.

Stanley Ketchel was shot October 15, 1916, on the ranch of R. P. Dickerson, near Conway, Mo., forty miles east of Springfield, by Walter A. Dipey.

Ketchel was visiting on the ranch, where Dipey, under the name of Walter A. Morris, was employed as a farm hand. Goldie Smith, who was arrested the day of the shooting, charged with complicity in the crime, was employed by Mr. Dickerson as a cook.

Stanley Ketchel was eating breakfast in one of the ranch buildings when Dipey entered the room, pointed a rifle at the fighter and ordered him to throw up his hands. Ketchel laughed, saying he was a joke. Dipey fired and Ketchel fell, whereupon Dipey turned and ran.

During the report of the rifle, Charles Bailey, superintendent of the ranch, ran into the room and found Ketchel lying on the floor. "He shot me," the father groaned, pointing in the direction taken by Dipey, and became unconscious. Ketchel died in the afternoon.

Goldie Smith, when arrested, said Dipey had shot Ketchel because he had insulted her. Dickerson offered $5000 reward for the slayer.

After rambling through the Ozark hills three days as a fugitive, with little to eat or drink, Dipey stopped at the farm house of Thomas Haggard, near Nangan, Mo. The farmer, suspecting his identity, caused his arrest. The trial of Dipey and the Smith woman began January 23.

TWO TEAMS TO ONE.

U.S.C. to Go Up Against Citrus Union and Long Beach Next Saturday.

The University of Southern California track team is scheduled to meet the combined teams of the Citrus Union and Long Beach high schools, at Bovard Field Saturday.

Cromwell's men would have little trouble defeating either of these aggregations alone but in competition with the best runners from both of them the varsity will have its hands full. Cromwell hardly expects to win the meet but the members of the squad are more hopeful.

The varsity was scheduled to meet Long Beach Saturday but the match was postponed on account of rain. Citrus Union had already arranged to contest with the Methodists next Saturday and the manager decided that it would make the meet more exciting if the men could compete against the combined strength of the two pre-eminent schools.

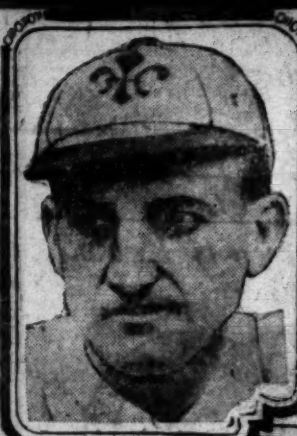

The points for each school will be determined separately but the varsity must win over the combined points of the two high schools to take the honors. Citrus Union is especially strong on the sprints and short runs while Long Beach has a number of good middle and long distance men, so that between them the varsity will be pushed to its best efforts.

AEROPLANE IS BURNED.

Shouts of Spectators Arouse Aviator to His Danger and He Descends Just in Time.

(Associated Press Night Report.) COPENHAGEN, Jan. 24.—Svendens, the Danish aviator, while flying in a Volan aeroplane discovered, while at a great height, that his machine was on fire.

The first intimation he had was when the spectators shouted to him. At first he paid no attention to the cries, but at last he realized something was wrong and looking around, saw flames bursting from the framework of his machine. Descending as quickly as possible, he reached the earth just in time to avert serious injury. The machine was destroyed.

After the Trophy.

FINAL HONORS ARE AT STAKE.

BUNDY AND McLOUGHLIN TO BE
STARS AT CORONADO.

To End Long Feud on Southern California Courts by Meeting in Deciding Tennis Match in February Tournament—Champion of Mexico and Texas Coming.

The final match between Thomas Bundy and Maurice McLoughlin for the Coronado County Club trophy, which each of these players has won two years, is to be the feature of the Coronado tournament at the club courts, February 8 to 11, inclusive.

This trophy is a cup of unusual value which was offered first in 1904 to the player who should win it three times. Bundy won it in 1907-08, and McLoughlin succeeded in taking it the last two years, so that these two old rivals will fight it out at the tourney this year for permanent possession.

Nearly all of the local players of note have entered for the tournament. The meet is an invitation affair and prizes including two cups and several medals will be presented to the winners.

Among the players who have entered is Harvey McQuiston, the champion of Texas, who was at one time the best player in Mexico. He is expected to give the Pacific Coast players a good run for the prize, as he has figured prominently in national meets on various occasions.

OHIO BOWLERS LEAD.

Sensational Rolling in Tournament in Progress at St. Louis—Schneider's Fine Score.

(Associated Press Night Report.) ST. LOUIS, Jan. 24.—Bowling from Cincinnati and Dayton, Ohio, topped the leaders in two divisions today, after the most sensational rolling in the American Bowling Congress tournament now in progress here.

Frank Riehe and Joseph Gardell, members of the Moerlein team of Cincinnati, went into first place in the two main events with a score of 1320, each striking out from the ninth frame of the last game in an effort to bowl the first 200 average of the 800 two men teams entered in the tournament.

The most surprising score came in the individuals, when Charles Schneider, Jr., of Dayton, Ohio, hung up a score of 661, beating the best previous tournament mark, made by George Qualey of St. Louis, by forty-four pins. In the last game Schneider finished with six strikes, but had made errors in trying for single pins.

QUAIL VERY SCARCE.

Southern California Hunters Have Very Dark Prospect Ahead of Them This Year.

Southern California sportsmen will be up against it this fall in the quail hunting line for the indications are that the birds will be scarcer this year than ever before in the history of the State. H. J. Pritchard, Deputy Game and Fish Commissioner, stated yesterday that the Fish Commission will not be able to liberate any birds this year as it did last season, for the reason that none can be secured from Mexico or any other locality. Many hundreds of birds were secured last year in Mexico and turned loose in various parts of Southern California, but there will be nothing doing this year for the birds cannot be had.

Attell Signs Again.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 24.—The Attell featherweight champion, has signed articles to box Tommy Kilbane, local featherweight, before a club here on the night of January 29. They will weigh in pounds at 5 o'clock, and the bout will be for ten rounds.

FIGHT FOR GAME WARDEN JOB INTERESTS SPORTSMEN'S CLUBS.

BY EDWIN L. HEDDERLY.

THE liveliest topic of interest at present among Los Angeles county sportsmen is the selection of a game warden.

Since the late William B. Moran died, leaving behind him an excellent record for faithful and efficient service, the office has been occupied by a temporary appointee, Wm. J. Dunn.

Another warden was to have been chosen early in the present month, but on account of petitions widely signed by sportsmen and representatives of their clubs, urging upon the Supervisors the importance of the office, and the desire of those most vitally interested that it be filled by the selection of competent man, action was deferred for the time being, and still is in abeyance.

The sportsmen are very strong in the clubs, and there being nearly alone which draw their members from this city. Besides these, are many fishermen's clubs, of which the Southern California Rod & Reel is the largest, composed entirely of men who fish in salt water.

LAND SHARKS GRAB POWERS.

Bought a Lot in Seattle;
Sorry Ever Since.

He Waded Through Slog to See His Property.

Has No Ambitions to Become Like Nat Goodwin.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

"There goes the sixth one this afternoon," sighed "Jimmy" Powers as one of the shining lights of the local real estate fraternity wandered in discontented manner through the labyrinth of the Alexandria, not having made a sale.

"What do they think I am, anyway? I've had seventy letters and so many special representatives, heads of firms and assistant real estate salesmen around that I've got a headache."

"This last guy asked if I didn't want to buy an orange grove. I told him I always took my orange groves sliced, just after the ham and egg at breakfast time."

"I'll leave the real estate to Nat Goodwin. He seems to be trying to buy up the whole State of California, a lot at a time. He told me I never owned but one lot."

Continued Powers pensively. "That was in Seattle. I bought it because a friend of mine had a lot right in one of the finest subdivisions in the city and wanted me to change it into a lot to sell it, but he needed a little cash. I almost wept on his neck for gratitude."

"Last year, when in Seattle, I decided to look up this wonderful piece of property that was going to keep me out of the home for superannuated actors in my decadent days. I started right out after breakfast one morning to look over the place. It was a lot of one of one street car line, walk a few hundred yards, and there it was, right at the Billy-whatever-the-name-was, subdivision."

"I went in to see it. It was a beautiful lot. I was looking at it when I saw a man standing alone in the wilderness and I decided this must be the place. And chasing off four dogs and three cats, I found the proprietor."

"Say, can you tell me where the Grabs are? I saw the sign that said 'Grabs' and I thought it was the one that is going to have a railroad running right through the center of it."

"No, I can't from that description," says the man, "but the tracks are going to have a railroad running through them. Why, I'm going to have a railroad run three miles around my house and then the back door to the barn. And then I grabbed me by the coat and whiskered in my car that really he did have a plot where the railroad was certainly lost his nerve and I was looking at it."

"Honestly, I couldn't. I told him I had to find the Stickum & Cheatem tract and struck off again across country. By and by I met an old bewhiskered coddler and asked him about the tract."

"Young man," he said, "do you see that star up there?" as he pointed to a distant twinkling gleam in the sky. "That's the star that's going to have a railroad running right under that where you'll find the famous Holdup & Robem tract."

"By the time I swam, floundered and waded back to the car and then I was back in the city. I found that the show had been called off and I was out my share of the profits for the night."

"They told that lot for taxes this year and I paid the only one they'll ever sell to Powers. Take it from me."

CHESS AND CHECKERS.

In the chess tournament of the Chess and Checker Club of Southern California, the field today was a home stretch yesterday and several competitors are coming in a bunch behind the leaders, only one point being needed in some cases to finish their record.

J. E. Carr bested both George Stockinger and W. L. McCallum in the first round. Carr's game was a masterpiece of strategy and he was a creditable draw with Dr. Graham, and Dr. C. McCallum completed his schedule by defeating McMurray.

McCallum's score, 9½ games won and 1½ lost, is a fine record for a beginner. He has been competing in both chess and checker tournaments simultaneously for some time. When out of practice, this may be accepted as a good record, which he is capable of bettering in another contest.

Carr's list in his game with H. B. Bates, and J. R. Pridham lacks only his game with Graham to know his standing. R. E. Elson, also, has a single game to play with the Stockinger, and he must win that in order to make the 50 per cent. mark.

Match With Jack Johnson Seems to Be Hazy as Negro Is Crossing Trails.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The departure of Al Kaufman to the East to accept theatrical engagements at about the same time that Jack Johnson has announced his intention of coming to San Francisco for a rest, precludes any talk of an immediate matching of the two heavyweights. It strengthens also the rumor made recently by Johnson that the challenge issued by Kaufman was merely to help his necessary publicity for the stage.

Kaufman left this morning on the Overland for New York. From the metropolis he will go to Wilkes-Barre, Penn., where he opens on January 30 with the "Follies of the Day" company. He is under contract for ten weeks with Barney Grant and has an option for ten weeks more, so that the California heavyweights can keep busy for five months. If he comes to do so, Kaufman stated that when he left that he had no plans regarding a bout and that he would not consider any at the present time.

Return of Local Boy From East Puts Him Up Against Hard Fighting—Austin and Young Chico to Go Ten Rounds With Rose and Walsh, Completing Programme.

Local fight bugs will not have to wait long for another boxing contest for Manager McCarey will deal out the next card at the Vesper arena on Saturday afternoon, February 4, under the auspices of the Pacific Athletic Club.

Johnny Frayne of San Francisco and Leonard Lauder of this city, are billed to appear in a fifteen-round main event, while Jimmy Austin and Young Chico and Tony Rose and Jack Walsh are scheduled for ten rounds each, these preliminaries to stand unless something happens to one of the principals.

Since his return to this city from the East, Lauder has been anxious to fight some boy of his own weight and Frayne has consented to come down from San Francisco and meet him at 135 pounds. Both boys have had considerable experience in the ring and have met with bad luck on a number of occasions, but have had equally good fortune. Lauder still thinks he can show the local fans he is of championship caliber and Frayne's record indicates that he is made of the right stuff.

Austin and Chico have been hurling around for some time. Frayne, who is anxious to wipe out that six-round decision that Chico has over him, Walsh and Rose have also met with a similar fate. The two fastest boys the Naud Junction ring had in many a day. They have agreed to a 100 round bet and each naturally expects to win that money.

FARMER FRANK CHANCE LOVES HIS STOCK AND HIS ORANGES.

Noises and Hubbub of the Big League Cities Forgotten as He Fondles Billy and the New Born Calf—Awakens to Needs of His Ball Team Only When Memory Is Jogged—Steinfeldt Had Better Look Out.

BY GREY OLIVER.

WHAT'S the difference between a week-old, wobbly-legged Jersey calf and the Chicago Cubs ball team, three or four times winner of the National League pennant?

What would you rather have? The love and affection of 100,000 Chicago baseball fans or the knowledge that a big fat-legged horse will not die of the colic and indigestion?

It might not take you long to decide these questions and Frank Chance would require any more time either for if these were all passed up to him he would probably put his arms around the calf and the horse and thus make it easy for you to have the others.

This is the way you must consider Frank Chance these days for out of the chrysalis of baseball indifference, all that was formerly known to his enemies as the "rough-necked Husk Chance" has developed into the butterfly of prosperity—Mr. Chance, owner of twenty-one acres of bearing orange grove that cost $2000 an acre and all paid for.

When I went out to see Chance yesterday at his home place near Glendora the first man I saw was a corduroy rancher kneeling in the middle of the main street in that little country town. He was beside an auto pulling an oil can out of a box and no one in Glendora would have known him. He was the peerless fourth time leader of the Cubs—the "peerless lion" as one of his actions and his manner it was an even money bet that he didn't know where Chicago was and didn't care.

"These autos require a lot of attention," he said, "and you've got to watch them all the time. You see I'm pouring oil into this now and it will be all right."

About this time his pretty wife asked him for some money to trade for some dainties at the grocery store and as she walked away she left the high-salaried, many-time winner of National League honors standing in the middle of the country street talking to several farmers, smoking an old dark pipe, and shrugging his head at a man trying to sell him an orange grove.

Chance at home is no different than any other man off his chosen field of battle and unless you force him to talk about baseball you would never know that he had ever seen a game. Some person might expect that you would find him house decorated with crossed bats on the walls, championship balls sticking in odd nooks and corners, ban-

WILD ASSAULT ON THE REFEREE.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Referee Eugene Corey was besieged with a storm of bowls and other dangerous missiles last night when he disqualified "Toune" Joseph, the one to four favorite, in the third round of his twenty-round bout with Arth Everenden for holding.

The match was for the welterweight championship of England and the Marquis of Queensberry was chairman of the fight. The riot became so furious that the Marquis and Referee Corey had to be escorted from the pavilion by friends and the timekeeper was injured in the melee.

HENRY DEFEATS BURKE.

ALBANY, Jan. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With a terrific left and right to the jaw, Kid Henry of Troy defeated Sator Burke of New York by a clean knockout in the fifth round of a scheduled ten-round bout before the Knickerbocker Athletic Club tonight. Burke fell with almost his entire weight upon the back of his head but he was clearly knocked out before he started to fall and went down like a log.

Suits and Skirts ON SPECIAL SALE

It really seems unnecessary—this sacrifice of seasonable garments, simply to make room for spring styles which show very little variation in cut, material and finish. Yet here are the available opportunities:

Handsome Tailored Suits at $15 & $17.50
Former Prices $25 to $32.50

Suits with short, natty coats and the narrow skirts now in vogue; made from selected chevots, serges, bouclies, sibelines and like materials, in good colors; cut to practically half price now. All sizes somewhere.

Skirts at $7.50
Usually $10 and $12.50

And a number of these are brand-new, too—bought at a price only a few days ago; gray mixtures, brown mixtures, Shepherd checks, mohairs—white, black and plain navy, as well. All styles which are in perfect taste.

Fancy Hair Ornaments
Little you care whether we have small or large quantities of these when their prices are so low. As a matter of fact, small lots account for the reductions:

Buckles, barrettes, pins, etc., in shell and amber; good values at 35c, cut now to .25c.
Handsome stone-set back combs, pins, bandeaus, etc., of the most desirable sorts—styles that sell in a regular way at $4.50 to $10 each, now . . . $3.00 to $6.85.

FOR LOVERS OF FINE NEEDLEWORK
The Art Needlework Section has some unusually good things to offer today in the way of all linen Japanese drawwork, done in the inimitably clever Oriental manner: Thirty-inch centerpieces, forty-five and fifty-four-inch scarfs, some of them embroidered; all beautifully made, and well worth double the prices for which we can sell these samples . . . $1.75 (Art Needlework Section—Third Floor.)

NEW ARRIVAL OF ROYAL SOCIETY PACKAGE GOODS HERE. WE GIVE FREE EMBROIDERY LESSONS TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

DAINTY NEW DRAPERY STUFFS
for bungalows now in planning; no prettier assortments anywhere hereabouts:

Stenciled Scrims.
A new line of the most fashionable scrims and casement cloths—fully fifty patterns of various weaves, in brown, green, olive, blue, rose, etc., to harmonize with any color scheme at 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c and . . . 40c yard.
